Top Reasons to Attend AAPM’s 66th Annual Meeting & Exhibition!

1. INTERACT with equipment and service providers. See and evaluate emerging technology and solutions. Attend live education sessions with product experts.

2. DEVELOP and maintain relationships with medical physicists and commercial product experts from around the country and the world.

3. ATTEND scientific, clinical, and professional sessions. Explore cutting-edge topics like the Radiopharmaceuticals Program, attend sessions on data science and artificial intelligence applications in Medical Physics, and many more.

4. SHARE your work. Present your latest research findings in scientific oral and poster sessions and interact with other experts at the forefront of scientific advances in Medical Physics.

5. RECEIVE professional certification and accreditation. Earn continuing education credits and learn about new regulatory requirements and accreditation standards.

6. OBTAIN career advancement and job opportunities. Discover career prospects, interact with potential employers, and take advantage of mentoring opportunities.